London, May 25, 1838

To the Revd.
W. G. Wermelskirch,
Dresden.

Dear Sir!

In the absence of our former master G. F. Angas, we confirm the receipt of your letter of the 17th of the month with its enclosed three invoices, which amount to £50 and comply with your instructions. For your information, the "Prince George" left Plymouth on the 27th of last month with everyone on board, who, we believe, are doing well.

A credit of 100 pounds has been duly set up in the South Australian Cos. Bank in Adelaide in favor of Messrs. Teichelmann and Schürmann.

We remain,
Dear Sir,

your obedient servant,

G. F. Angas Esqr.
