

Proof of the expenditure of the hundred pounds of steel originally intended for the indigenous people in Port Lincoln.

	£	S.	d.
Bank withdrawal	1	19	3
A backdated salary for Brother Teichelmann.	21	17	6
Salary for the former assistant teacher Makenzin.	10	-	-
Travel money for the brothers Klose, Teichelmann and Schürmann goes to Encounter Bay for a consultation.	4	7	-
Check the travel money for Brother Schürmann once to and two times from Port Lincoln.	4	10	-
Turning canvas into mattresses for the schoolchildren in Encounter Bay	-	16	-
Well buckets along with a rope for them	-	11	8
Soap for exactly the same ones.	-	3	6
1 dozen small shirts for exactly the same ones.	1	16	-
1 sack of flour for exactly the same ones.	1	3	-
1 barrel of flour for the natives.	10	-	-
1 plow and 10 bundles of beech branches @ 4 shillings	4	10	-
Previously spent by Brother Meyer for the schoolboys	3	16	-
Two pairs of trek oxes, along with 1 yoke and 1 chain	24	-	-
Two eyoks along with brackets and pulling chains	1	19	-
2 day laborers for 1 ox driver and 2 pocket knives for natives	-	6	-
Various things for the native Solomon, as his Tabuch, trousers, etc.	1	3	-
For grinding 10 bundles of wheat for the Schoolboys	-	10	-
For damaging a borrowed sled	-	6	-
For repairing the plow and getting a new wheel f or the cart	2	19	-

Total	96	12	11
4 sacks of manure resold	4

Stay in the cash register	92	12	11
	7	7	1

	100	0	0

W. A. E. Meyer, C. W. Schürmann