

28th Dec. 1846

To Messrs. Miss.
Teichelmann, Klose, Meyer, and Schürmann
in Südneuholland.

Dear bretheren, beloved by the Lord!

We are very sorry that we weren't able to send you money earlier. It's a very difficult time right now, and thanks to the Count's willingness to advance funds to the missionary fund, we've been able to announce £100 sterling, which will be sent back to you by G. Jackson in London.

If you have been suffering from shortages lately, don't lose heart; the Lord our God will not abandon or neglect us, as we desire to serve him on both sides; better times will come again.

We are eagerly awaiting new news from you; we haven't received any updates from you for quite some time.

May the grace of our Lord and Savior be with you! Amen.

Dresden, December 28, 1846

The committee, etc.